And thus a man who is resting upon faith, hope and love, and who keeps a firm hold upon these, does not need the Scriptures except for the purpose of instructing others. Accordingly, many live without copies of the Scriptures, even in solitude, on the strength of these three graces. So that in their case, I think, the saying is already fulfilled: "Whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away." Yet by means of these instruments (as they may be called), so great an edifice of faith and love has been built up in them, that, holding to what is perfect, they do not seek for what is only in part perfect. – St. Augustine

How mature am I?

Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glorification. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

St. Paul is telling us that we are the mature followers of Jesus. We are ready to receive the wisdom of God. This is not wisdom as the world or today’s rulers perceive wisdom, but something the immature cannot perceive.

Later Paul recounts that he began addressing us: as babes in Christ. He fed us with milk, not solid food; for we were not ready for it.

We must reflect on our spiritual maturity. Do we still need milk, to be spoon fed, or are we ready for solid food?

We begin at baptism, and our parents and the Holy Church, worked diligently to raise us up in the knowledge of God's mysteries. They worked to bring us from milk to solid food, but can we take that solid food?

This secret and mystery of God is not hocus-pocus. Rather it is the teaching of Jesus who shared with us every secret and mystery of His Heavenly Father. He recounts many of these mysteries in today's Gospel. Do not hate, don't even consider it. Reconcile with your enemies. Do not curse or criticize anyone. Do not lust for anything or for any reason. Don’t even consider it. Respect the human dignity of every person. Do not bear grudges against your spouse, but put your spouse first. Value the dignity and sacredness of your relationship.

In all these things - which are mysteries to the worldly - keep the commandments. Do not keep them as merely a law or a requirement, but keep them in a mature way – with love at the center: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

This is the great mystery. It is the mystery of loving fully and completely as Christians. It is our ability to accept and digest this solid food of love, to be mature followers of Jesus.

When we were immature we had to learn this slowly. We learned in the context of family and we learned in Church. Now we must assess whether we have matured; whether we are eating the solid food of God's love daily. If we are mature we live the mystery and secret of love at all times and in every circumstance. If we eat the solid food of love we will love even when the world says it is ok not to. Earing this solid food of love we will live forever.

"Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ"

Ephesians 4:15

Epiphany home blessings started January 7th and continue through March 4th. See or call Deacon Jim to set up a time to have your home blessed.

OFFICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Our annual budget meeting will take place on Sunday, March 6th. We will gather at this time to once again to hear our annual financial report, the report of our auditors, and exercise our democratic rights in voting for a new budget. Our Holy Church is unique because its funds are not controlled by the clergy, but by the people. We have a right to accountability for all we sacrifice for our Church.

Souper Bowl Sunday Results

Thank you and God bless you for your generosity on Souper Bowl Sunday and the weeks leading up to it. We raised $221 and collected 114 pounds of food. The staff at Schenectady Inner City Ministries was very grateful noting that our small church gives more than a lot of the much larger ones that donate.

Community Action Afternoon

Last Sunday afternoon we hosted a community afternoon to discuss the issues facing Mont Pleasant Middle School. Thank you to all who attended and contributed to the discussion. There are great challenges that must be faced, but together we can make a difference. All who attended were amazed at the generosity of our faith community in opening our facilities to the community. New partnerships for doing good are being formed thanks to our action.

Friend Sunday

Friend Sunday is March 30th. It is an annual day when churches join together and encourage their members to reach out and invite friends and family to a special service where friendship is honored and encouraged. The Friend Sunday movement hopes to reach every home in America with an invitation to church and ultimately into a relationship with Jesus. Our members are the most effective means of outreach. Why not honor a special friend to church on March 30th and let them know that you are praying for them in a very special way that day.

FREE LUNCH on Sunday

Our next free lunch is today featuring chicken soup. Please be sure to continue to invite friends, family, and everyone you know to partake every month. There is no cost or charge for this meal. This service opens our home to all in need of a little company, a warm meal, and the love of Christ. Our free lunch on Sunday program is on the 3rd Sunday of every month.
