Can you explain?

Ummmm, maybe?

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit”

It is amazing that on the day we consider the greatest mystery of mysteries – the Holy Trinity, we are confronted with the Jesus’ command to go and do the most simple and straightforward of things - baptize.

We recall from catechism class that anyone can baptize. In an emergency, any person can take some water, pour it over a person’s head, and with the words “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” they have baptized that person.

In ages past, this was quite necessary. Unfortunately, many children died shortly after being born. People were caught up in wars and other tragedies. Christians in many places were the subject of persecution and martyrdom. Healthcare, safety, and religious freedom were a far cry from what they are today. Still to this day, every Christian has the right and duty to baptize when necessary.

Today’s Christians in the Middle East, North Korea, and China still baptize in emergencies, in prisons, whenever and wherever necessary. Soldiers in harms way baptize their brothers and sisters. Healthcare workers baptize in urgent situations.

In baptizing, in this simple act, we join the newly baptized to the Holy Trinity, to this great mystery, and to the Christian community

The key is that in baptism, in regeneration into people of God, we come to recognize that our wisdom and intelligence are not enough. We realize that we are participants in God’s life. We must listen to and understand God’s mystery as a child would; accepting God’s greater wisdom.

Jesus praised His Father in saying: “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to little children.”

We cannot explain the mystery of the Trinity. We can however explain what He has revealed to us and what we have accepted in baptism as His children. It is this simple fact: The Father loves us so much that He offered up His Son so that we might have eternal life. He loves us so much that He gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to sustain, instruct, strengthen, and enlighten us; to join us together.

That’s a mystery we can all explain – love, A.K.A. God.

“Secret things belong to the Lord our God, but those that are revealed belong to us and our descendants forever”

Deuteronomy 29:29

Summer Youth Events

The end of the school year is fast approaching. We have a full schedule of youth events throughout our Church. There’s the Central Diocese Acolyte Retreat, Kurs, and the biennial CONVO held at Niagara University this year. Please see Deacon Jim for more info and sign-ups.

Honoring Those Who Served

Memorial Day gave us a moment, as a parish family, to come together in prayer at our parish cemetery. We were able to give thanks for the lives of all who served our country in the cause of freedom and to pray for our service members and veterans.

Thank you to all you joined in prayer at the cemetery and those who prayed along with us from home.

The cemetery looked beautiful, flowers and flags standing to honor those who rest there. It was an honor to stand at the altar in our cemetery, to offer prayer, to proclaim the Word of God among our faithful and before the eyes of the public, calling to mind the honor found in serving all, in listening to Jesus as He says: Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Our Parish Cemetery

For those who do not know, our parish has a cemetery located on Donald Road near Central Park in Schenectady. This beautiful setting is replete with the history and memory of those who served our parish and worshiped with us.

If you and your family are at the stage of pre-planning for your Christian funeral and other matters, please consider a resting place in our Catholic cemetery. There are many resources available in relation to pre-planning. Be sure to consult appropriate resources and protect your rights – in particular your wishes in regard to a Catholic funeral in your parish. If you have questions in relation to these issues, please see Deacon Jim

Of note...

Coffee Hour: Our weekly coffee hours are a warm and wonderful experience, a time to gather and speak with each other while we enjoy a wealth of good things to eat. If you are able, please help by signing up to take care of a coffee hour. Please see Ed Bertasso with any questions.

Parish Organizations: Did you know that our Parish has many organizations that need you? God calls us to work together for the good of our community, in support of each other, and for the needs of the Church. The YMSofR -
