Can you just stop about Him?

No!

"...they shall know that a prophet has been among them."

Mark Bocinsky writes to teens and discusses Holy Boldness. He says: Being bold is more than acting without thinking. Being bold is much more than being close-minded, pretending to be tough, and never backing down.

I want to be bold, but I want to live in holy boldness (Acts 4:13). The Apostles, after being filled with the power of the Holy Spirit were bold with the leaders, elders, and scribes as they preached the Gospel even when being told to shut up. "Observing the boldness of Peter and John and perceiving them to be uneducated, ordinary men, [the leaders, elders and scribes] recognized them as companions of JESUS" There was something different about them. They didn't seem like exceptional people, but the leaders knew, through their boldness, that they were companions of Jesus. Do people see how we are living and speaking and acting and know that we must be followers of Christ?

Now, so often in the past I have tried to imitate this boldness and fallen flat on my face. You see, in the past I have translated boldness as acting without thinking, and that certainly isn't boldness: that's stupidity. If our boldness isn't united with love, then we're just being rebels. We must have a reason for our boldness. If we are striving for holy boldness, than we must be united with Christ. The way to holiness is to remain in Him.

Being bold is taking that next step in speaking the truth. Holy boldness, combined with love while being rooted in Christ, will change the world.

Today we hear of Ezekiel's calling, to go and be a prophet. We see Jesus scorned by the townsfolk He knew since childhood. They couldn't recognize Him as prophet and Messiah.

Like Ezekiel, we are called to be bold prophets, to speak of God and His way to all we meet. In doing that we provide them with the opportunity to know Jesus. Like Jesus, we must go out and speak the way of life, the Gospel, boldly knowing that some will not accept us.

The key to holy boldness is to be faithful to Jesus' way. Go out relying on His promises. Be bold and filled with love. In our love we show Jesus' way and open the door to people's understanding and acceptance of Him. If told to shut up, respond with the love of Jesus, because that's the best and boldest way to be His prophets and change the world. Doing all this, they will know a prophet has come.

"the wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion"

Kurs Report and CONVO

Two Kurs campers have returned after a week filled with fun, friendship, and the inspiration afforded through their experience of Christmas in July. Prime Bishop Anthony, Prime Bishop emeritus John, Bishop John, Bishop elect Stan, and Fathers Dawid and Soltysiak as well as the Kurs staff gave all a super experience. Our campers' first words on the road home were: 'I can't wait until next year.'

Please keep the ministry of the Bishop Hodur Retreat and Recreation Center in Waymart, Pennsylvania and the Kurs Camp in your prayers. We need to support this ministry, not just financially, but through the active participation of all our Church youth so that it may continue for the next 100 years.

The biennial CONVO will be held at Niagara University this year from July 23-27. We have three young people enrolled to attend so far. Deacon Jim will attend as a clergy chaperone. The theme of this year's CONVO is "Confirmed to Walk on Water." Participants will visit Niagara Falls and will take a trip on the Maid of the Mist boat. They will also visit Holy Mother of the Rosary Cathedral to see the many beautiful religious carvings designed by our Fr. Senior Walter Madej.

CONVO participants have been asked to bring at least one non-perishable food item or a soap, toothbrush, or toothpaste to donate to a local food pantry. Participants will also be making blankets (all materials supplied) for the elderly and shut-ins throughout the PNCC.

To support our attendees, please bring a few non-perishable food items or a soap, toothbrush, or toothpaste so that they may donate them on behalf of their parish.

There is still time for last minute applications. You can visit the CONVO website at <http://convo2012.weebly.com/> or on Facebook at <http://www.facebook.com/groups/166974820026021/>. Deacon Jim also has information sheets.
