“We call this food Eucharist; and no one else is permitted to partake of it, except one who believes our teaching to be true and who has been washed in the washing which is for the remission of sins and for regeneration [Baptism], and is thereby living as Christ has enjoined. For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these; but since Jesus Christ our Savior was made incarnate by the word of God and had both flesh and blood for our salvation, so too, as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic prayer set down by Him, and by the change of which our blood and flesh is nourished, is both the flesh and blood of that incarnated Jesus.” – St. Justin the Martyr

Sick Calls and Hospital Visits – Please know that hospitals will not advise parishes when an individual is admitted. Health confidentiality regulations prevent them from doing so. If someone is admitted please let Deacon Jim know so he might visit, pray with them, and bring Jesus’ healing presence to them. Parishioners in need of anointing should contact Fr. Mark Gnidzinski at 518-437-1889.

BACK TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Invite all on Sunday, September 15th for National Back to Church Sunday. Our message: Not been in a while - here's an opportunity to come back. Never been - you're invited. Looking to help - here's a chance to join in doing good for each other and our community.

Where does it all start?

We love, because he first loved us. If any one says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

Today we celebrate two very wonderful and amazing occasions.

The first is Christina and Nick’s reception of communion. The second is our Church’s Solemnity of Brotherly Love.

These two events could not be more perfectly aligned.

Our love for each other in Jesus’ community – the Holy Church – begins in the perfect unity we find in the Holy Eucharist. Christina and Nick are now part of that communion. Together with us, Christina and Nick are intimately joined with Jesus. We are all made one in His body. Along with us, Christina and Nick will play roles that strengthen the community of faith through mutual love. As St. Peter tells us: As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace.

God’s grace is received in a most unique and special way in our communion. His body is more than mere food. In receiving Jesus’ body and blood we are pulled into union with Him at each and every moment of His life. We are there at the last supper, receiving His body and blood. We stand at the foot of His cross. We are at the empty tomb. We see Him ascend into heaven – and we are at His second coming. We have total and complete unity with Jesus AND with each other.

Our roles are not to be thought of as something for our own glorification or advancement, but rather for the glorification and advancement of all the people Jesus has called to be His own.

If we are one in His body and blood, if we share in His grace, if we have Jesus with us, then we must exhibit the fruit of this unity. That fruit is brotherly love.

We cannot participate in communion thinking that it is just Jesus and me. We cannot receive thinking that we are just remembering in the sense of recollection.

When we receive Jesus we must do so with the realization that we our bound to God and each other. We have unity with every Christian who receives Jesus anywhere or at any time. We are not alone. We are not just remembering, but are living in the reality of Christ throughout all of eternity.

God loved us first. Living in union with Him, in communion, means we must love each other. His love is the start and our love for each other is full participation in His

"For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."

1 Corinthians 11:26

Time to Study God’s Word

SUNDAY: Genesis 14:18
MONDAY: Hebrews 7:15-17
TUESDAY: John 6:35
WEDNESDAY: John 6:51
THURSDAY: John 6:53-54
FRIDAY: 1 Corinthians 11:1-2
SATURDAY: 1 Corinthians 12:13

Pray

Lord Jesus, I praise and thank You for the gift of Your body and blood. Grant that I may partake worthily.

First Holy Communion

Today we celebrate Holy Mass – in unity we perform the Holy Eucharist that makes us one with Jesus and brings us into total participation in every aspect of Jesus’ life. Christina Supinski and Nick Badovinac receive their First Holy Communion and now fully participate in the life of Christ. As participants in the life of Jesus they join us in producing the fruits of His life – mutual love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Join us after Holy Mass for a celebratory breakfast provided by the Supinski and Badovinac families. Please pray for Christina, Nick, and their families so that the fruits of His life are realized in their lives.

12th Anniversary of 9/11/2001

This Wednesday, September 11th is the 12th anniversary of the terrorist attacks on the United States. We will recall the tragic events of 9-11-01 with a prayer service that evening at 7:30pm. These terrorist acts were inspired by a warped sense of religion. Because faith can be manipulated in evil and destructive ways, it is so important that as this unfortunate anniversary returns we pray instead to God for the virtue of Brotherly Love.

Craft Fair this Fall

We will be holding a seasonal/holiday craft fair on Saturday, October 12th from 9am till 4:30pm at the Rotterdam Senior Citizens Center, 2639 Hamburg St., Schenectady. At the present time we are seeking vendors for the fair, so if you know any crafters please invite them. Tables are $25/$30 or $10 extra with electric. We will be serving food too. Stephanie Dominy, Gayle Clas, and Kelly Supinski are leading this effort. We will hold meting every few weeks in preparation. Please feel free to join in. Also, in the fall, our SOCL student will be creating crafts that we will be able to sell at the fair in support of the SOCL program.

Track & Field Meet

We were blessed to participate in the annual YMSofR Zlot/Track and Field Tournament in Scranton, PA. We met old and new friends, shared in the Holy Eucharist, ate great food, and participated in various events. Congratulations Victoria on 4 awards.

FREE LUNCH on Sunday

Our next event is September 29th. Please be sure to continue to invite friends, family, and everyone you know to partake every month. There is no cost or charge for this meal. This service opens our home to all in need of a little company, a warm meal, and the love of Christ.

Of note...
