Watch for your life's sake. Let not your lamps be quenched, nor your loins unloosed; but be ready, for you know not the hour in which our Lord comes. But often shall you come together, seeking the things which are befitting to your souls: for the whole time of your faith will not profit you, if you be not made perfect in the last time. – The Didache

What's on your clock?

Jesus said to his disciples: "Watch, therefore; you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

Many of us have heard of some of the most well known timekeepers. There is Big Ben in London and the ball that drops at Times Square on New Year's Eve in New York City. Both are symbols of the passing of time. The United States Naval Observatory in Washington D.C. operates the master atomic clock ensemble which provides the time standard for the Department of Defense. FOCS 1, an atomic clock in Switzerland, started operating in 2004. It loses only one second every 30 million years. The Doomsday Clock at the University of Chicago is a symbolic clock face that represents a countdown to possible political related global catastrophe (a nuclear war or irreversible climate change). The closer the Science and Security Board of the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists set the Doomsday Clock to midnight, the closer the scientists believe the world is to global disaster. We are also in the midst of a whole group of sports seasons – football, basketball, and hockey. The clock at the top of our bulletin represents the last ten minutes of the game.

What's missing? Of course, the score! Who's winning? That is a question we tend to ask as time draws down. Who is winning, we even ask that in our lives as time draws down. Have I won, am I winning?

That should be a question Christians avoid. If we are focused on our successes and failures, the winning and losing of everyday life, we aren't responding to Jesus' call, we missed His request of us. If we aren't much concerned with success, but are just allowing time to pass, biding our time in quiet, waiting for time to run out, we aren't responding to Jesus' call, we missed His request of us. Jesus tells us: He has placed His servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch.

Advent is the season of the year that we should be taking account of our watchfulness, how we have responded to the Lord's call. Are we at work for Him? We should use this time to redouble our efforts to be about our Master's work, not our personal wins and losses.

All of the world's timekeepers keep running, whether they are symbolic of the passing of time, predictive of the end of our times, or scientific instruments measuring its passage. We are always in the countdown period and our Lord's return is near. What ends up on our clock will not be wins or losses, but how well we have responded to Him.

But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

2 Peter 3:8

Ordination

Deacon Jim's ordination to the Holy Priesthood has been scheduled for Saturday, December 6th (the Commemoration of St. Nicholas) at 10am at St. Stanislaus Cathedral in Scranton, PA. The future Father Jim's first Holy Mass will then take place on Sunday, December 7th (the Second Sunday of Advent) at 2pm followed by a dinner sponsored by the parish. We expect Prime Bishop Anthony to join us on this wonderful occasion.

We invite all parishioners and friends to attend both events. Please let a parish committee member know if you would like to go to Scranton for the ordination. Please let Mrs. Stephanie Dominy know if you will attend Father Jim's first Holy Mass and the dinner to follow. We would appreciate your R.S.V.P. by Sunday, November 30th so enough food may be prepared. Please continue to pray for Deacon Jim and his family as he prepares. Also pray for an increase in vocations so more men may respond to God's call.

Food Collection

We are taking up our annual food collection for both Thanksgiving and Christmas. Our Thanksgiving collection amounted to 125 pounds of food delivered to Schenectady Inner City Ministries. Please bring in your offerings of canned or dry goods and place them before the Mary altar. God bless you for your generosity and care for those in need in our local area.

Advent

On this first Sunday of Advent we will bless our Christmas wafers/opłatki. Please take home an envelope to share with your family during the Christmas Vigil. We have a full schedule of Advent happenings, our parish vigil dinner, Advent penitential service, and decorating of the church. Please join in, and make this a season of true preparation for Jesus' coming.

Heritage

We continue to focus on rebirth: On the contrary, the reborn man carries out all of his responsibilities in a conscientious, honest, faithful and exact way. He does this because he believes that the fulfillment, of his vocational obligations are essential for maintaining proper stability and order in human affairs, and because it represents a gradual realization of the conditions necessary to achieve the kingdom of God on this earth. However, the obligations of this earthly life do not totally absorb the reborn man. In this sense, he is much like a sailor, who, when he is at sea, does everything necessary to guarantee a successful trip

FREE LUNCH on Sunday

Our next free lunch is December 21st. Please be sure to continue to invite friends, family, and everyone you know to partake every month. There is no cost or charge for this meal. This service opens our home to all in need of a little company, a warm meal, and the love of Christ. Our free lunch on Sunday program is on the 3rd Sunday of every month.
