NOVEMBER

2017

HE WILL WIPE AWAY EVERY TEAR FROM THEIR EYES, AND DEATH SHALL BE NO MORE, NEITHER SHALL THERE BE MOURNING, NOR CRYING, NOR PAIN ANYMORE, FOR THE FORMER THINGS HAVE PASSED AWAY.

The Church dedicates the month of November to the memory of the faithful departed. This is a wonderful tradition through which the prayers of the faithful living help to guide those that have passed on to eternal life into heaven.

The words above, from Revelation 21:4, give us a glimpse of what is in store for those already journeying to heaven after death, and for us - the faithful living. Frankly, it will be beyond wonderful, exhilarating, and amazing. Pure, eternal, constant joy and glory for the faithful.

Reflecting on all these things should cause us to consider our faithfulness more fully. The rewards for faithfulness are great, yet sometimes it can seem so hard to remain so, especially in the face of significant challenges.

These challenges are like small 'deaths' in our lives. It can range from sickness to breakups, economic challenges to interpersonal conflicts.

Sometimes, these small 'deaths' make us feel alone - and that is the enemy's work. The enemy wishes to separate us, to accuse us (I'm not good enough; No one will understand; No one will like me now; I am unworthy of God; I can't possibly go to church; It's better if I stay away).

A funny thing happens when we let faithfulness - born out of prayer and perseverance - overcome our fears, overcome the enemy, the accuser. When faithfulness prevails, when we step back into church, we find the start of healing and the comfort of fellowship. The sacraments bring us the special graces we need for strength and renewal. The key to faithfulness is to not allow small 'deaths' to separate us from God's house and family.

This month, as we commemorate and look to the example of the faithful departed, let us redouble our faithfulness so that we too will be prepared to enter that place where small 'deaths' end and where there is no more mourning, crying, or pain.

Month of All Souls

The Holy Church sets aside the month of November to commemorate those who have preceded us in holy death.

As Christians we recognize that death is not an ending, but rather a change. We pass through death into everlasting life. We remain joined with all those who have died. We rely on them for their intercession on our behalf. They rely on our prayers and intercession to ease their transition, their journey into the glory of heaven.

We will remember our dearly departed all month according to age old Catholic custom of commemoration and prayer...a custom known as "wypominki."

We will remember all those entrusted to our prayer prior to every Holy Mass in November.

The Liturgy

A thought on the Liturgy (Eucharist) which might give us a deeper perspective of its profound place in the life of the Christian.

"The Eucharist is that same place of atonement, then, that Christ is: the chiasmus (reversal of word order) where eternity and time are poured out into one another, where eternity empties itself and time is raised into the eternal, and where we lose ourselves in the abyss of divine beauty to find ourselves restored in the utterly humble adoration of divine love."

From "Thine Own of Thine Own," in "The Hidden and the Manifest" by David Bentley Hart

Thanksgiving Prayer

O God, when I have food,
help me to remember the hungry;
When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless;
When I have a home,
help me to remember those who have no home at all;
When I am without pain,
help me to remember those who suffer,
And remembering,
help me to destroy my complacency;
bestir my compassion,
and help me be concerned enough
to help;
By word and deed,
those who cry out for what we take
for granted.
Amen.
