I have no energy.

I feel the power.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit... The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.

Pentecost, unless it falls very late, generally occurs within allergy season. If you have seasonal allergies you know that they cause the typical sneezing, coughing, itchy eyes. An overlooked side effect is feeling exhausted.

Allergies aren't the only reason for exhaustion. American society is one of the most productive on earth. We work-work-work and we don't see many people imitating the seven dwarves as they sing their way to work. Beyond work itself workers face a dilemma – whether to rest, take time off, or take a vacation. The current work environment looks at time-off as a sign of not being needed. If you're not missed while you are away you may come back to a pink slip. Without time-off, without the balanced life we need, we live exhausted.

It is ironic that when Pentecost rolls around, and we reflect on the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit, many of us are just plain exhausted. We think – wow, it would be great to have the power of the Holy Spirit, that energy that drove the apostles and disciples to conquer the earth for faith in Jesus.

As we lay in bed in the morning our prayer to the Holy Spirit may well be, Spirit, help me get out of bed. Then we lay there and perhaps feel guilty, perhaps feeling that we either missed out on or lost those great gifts of the Spirit; even the energy to get up.

What scripture teaches about the Holy Spirit is important to us.

We learn that as Christians we have received the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit dwells in each of us and is constantly filling us with love, inspiration, and very unique gifts – the variety of gifts given to each person for a good purpose.

The Spirit lives in us and listens to us. It is not a one-way conversation, the Spirit prompting us to do things but ignoring what we have to say. The Spirit takes what we say, and even what we cannot articulate, and brings those as prayers and petitions before the Father. As a result we get help.

Key to all of this is trust. Jesus told the Pharisees that the only unforgivable sin was to speak against the Holy Spirit. This is not literal – like saying the Holy Spirit is a bad guy. It is a failure to see and acknowledge the good the Spirit is doing, to trust the obvious power of the Spirit in our lives with Christ. This Pentecost we may feel exhausted, but we must trust that the Spirit is with us, giving us the gifts we need to do good, hearing our prayer, filling us with power!

And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city, until you are clothed with power from on high.

Luke 24:49

Time to Study God's Word

SUNDAY: John 3:6-8

MONDAY: Micah 3:8

TUESDAY: 2 Corinthians 5:17

WEDNESDAY: John 3:5

THURSDAY: 1 John 4:2

FRIDAY: 1 John 5:7

SATURDAY: 1 Corinthians 2:12

Pray

Holy Spirit, fill me with Your love, enlighten my heart and my mind so that I may love as Jesus taught.

Do you remember?

On the day of your Confirmation you received the gift of the Holy Spirit in the very same way Christians have since the time of the apostles, by the laying on of hands and anointing. Then you stood before your family, friends, priest, and bishop – the entire community of faith – and made this promise:

On this solemn day of my life – the day on which I received the Sacrament of Confirmation – I publically declare before Almighty God, His Holy Church, and all here present that I shall be a faithful member of Christ's Church.

Strengthened by the gifts of the Holy Ghost:

I promise – To do all in my power to live according to the Commandments of God, and fulfill His Holy Will.

I promise – To avoid sin, the occasion of sin and evil companionship.

I promise – To remember always, and in all places, that I am a member of the Polish National Catholic Church, and to faithfully fulfill all my obligations towards this Church.

So help me God, one in the blessed Trinity and all the Saints. Amen.

Rummage Sale Thank You

Our annual rummage and bake sale was held yesterday. Thank you to all who donated generously, made baked goods, worked on setting up, and staffed the sale. We are so blessed because as our generosity grows it spreads good throughout our community. God takes our work and sacrifice and works miracles with them. God bless YOU!!!

Music, Kurs, more

Applications are now available for summer events including the Acolyte Retreat, KURS (June 29-July 6), the National United Choirs music workshop. Also remember the annual YMSofR Zlot/Track and Field Tournament. See Deacon Jim and sign-up.

Our next Soup on Sunday is May 26th at 11:30am. Please be sure to invite friends, family, and everyone you know to partake every month. There is no cost or charge for this meal. This service opens our home to all in need of a little company, a warm meal, and the love of Christ.

Today, May 19th, there will be a showing of "A Place at the Table," a movie that looks at the lives of three families who face hunger and what can be done to end hunger. What we do here with Soup on Sunday does make a difference. The movie will be shown at Emmanuel-Friedens Church, 218 Nott Terr., Schenectady at 2pm.
