But after the great and wonderful prayers have been completed, then the bread is become the Body, and the wine the Blood, of our Lord Jesus Christ.” – St. Athanasius*

Forget everything we have learned and know, and

Be filled with grace

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Imagine if we were to walk into our very last class, just before graduation, and the professor says: 'Forget everything you have ever learned, forget everything you know, and be filled with grace.'

Today, and every Sunday (and in reality every day), we are asked to do that, to surrender our intellectualism, our self-assured knowledge, and enter into the mystery of faith. We are asked to turn ourselves over to the Holy Spirit and to allow ourselves to be filled with the grace God offers us so that we can do much good in His name.

Our friends and close compatriots in the Orthodox Church have beautiful liturgies that call to mind both the majesty and mystery of God presence among us. Their tradition, unlike western tradition, does not rely on over thinking the mystery of God, with attempts to analyze and explain every nuance of God's presence in our lives, but rather to worship and live trusting in the gift of faith handed down through God's Word and Church Tradition.

We are in the midst of the Octave of Corpus Christi, eight days set aside to reflect on the mystery of the Body and Blood of Jesus in our lives, this wondrous gift that provides the grace through which we become more and more into the image of Christ.

As we have studied over the past few months, the Holy Mass is the occasion in which we encounter the full reality of Jesus among us. That reality is fully present in the Eucharistic action of the priest and the Christian people. In the Eucharistic action of 'remembrance' we live fully present at the Last Supper, at the foot of the Cross, the resurrection and ascension, and finally in Christ's coming again. We are there with Him, present to Him, He is with us, and we are filled with His grace and tremendous love.

Our reception of the Eucharist in Holy Communion continues the mystery of Jesus in our life as Christians. In Communion we are joined as one. I could be receiving Communion on the moon, you here in Schenectady, each receiving the fullness of Jesus, each joined together as one body in Him. We are not separate and apart, alone in our communion, but together as one.

In these special eight days, and every day, let us forget what we think we know and actively be filled with grace, the glorious mystery of what we become in His Body and Blood.

"The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?"

1 Corinthians 10:16

Time to Study God's Word

SUNDAY: John 6:51

MONDAY: Hebrews 10:19-20

TUESDAY: 1 Corinthians 10:17

WEDNESDAY: Psalm 116:13

THURSDAY: Philippians 3:10-11

FRIDAY: 1 Corinthians 11:27-29

SATURDAY: 1 Corinthians 10:21

Pray

Lord Jesus, come into my life, make me one with You in the Eucharistic bread.

The Sacred Heart

June 7th is the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We honor Jesus' Sacred Heart in its reality – a Heart so filled with love for us that we are offered mercy, growth in faith and good works, forgiveness of sin and reconciliation, peace, and salvation. If you have the PNCC Book of Prayers and Devotions pray the Litany of the Sacred Heart beginning on page 207.

Almighty and eternal God, look upon the Heart of Thy most beloved Son, and upon the praise and satisfaction He offers Thee on behalf of sinners, and when they come to Thee imploring Thy mercy, graciously pardon them, in the name of Thy Son Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reignth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

Craft Fair this Fall

We will be holding a seasonal/holiday craft fair on Saturday, October 12th from 9am till 4:30pm at the Rotterdam Senior Citizens Center, 2639 Hamburg St., Schenectady. At the present time we are seeking vendors for the fair, so if you know any crafters please invite them. Tables are $25 or $30 with electric. We will be serving food too. Stephanie Dominy, Gayle Clas, and Kelly Supinski are leading this effort. We will hold meeting every three weeks in preparation. Our 1st meeting will be June 23rd. Please feel free to join in. Also, in the fall, our SOCL student will be creating crafts that we will be able to sell at the fair in support of the SOCL program.

Memorial Day Thank You

Thank you to all who joined us at our parish cemetery on Memorial Day morning for our Service of Worship and Holy Communion. It was a beautiful day and a wonderful occasion to recall the sacrifice of our brothers and sisters who have offered their lives for our freedom. If you get an opportunity, visit our beautiful cemetery located between 162 and 229 Donald Ave, in Schenectady, say a prayer, and reflect on the union we have as Christians here on earth and in heaven, the communion of saints.

Music, Kurs, more

Applications are now available for summer events including the Acolyte Retreat, KURS (June 29-July 6), and the National United Choirs music workshop. Also remember the annual YMSofR Zlot/Track and Field Tournament. See Deacon Jim and sign-up.

Please be sure to continue to invite friends, family, and everyone you know to partake every month. There is no cost or charge for this meal. This service opens our home to all in need of a little company, a warm meal, and the love of Christ.
