Sick Calls and Hospital Visits – If someone is in need, please let Pastor Jim know so he might visit, pray with, and anoint them. Call Pastor Jim at 518-522-0944.

Sing poetically.

Come, Holy Spirit, come! In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. Shine within these hearts of yours, And our inmost being fill! Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue’s sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

Today we declare: Happy Birthday Church!

Did you notice the Sequence read today, Come, Holy Spirit?

A Sequence is simply a poetic chant recited before the proclamation of the Gospel. You find Sequences on the great feasts of the Church: Easter, Pentecost, and Corpus Christi, as a sign of our joy. There are others as well, found in some churches at Christmas or on other Feasts.

Such poetry helps us understand the beauty and significance of what God has done for us. On this very special day it is appropriate that we pay close attention and sing about the gifts we are receiving out of the sending of the Holy Spirit.

It is key for us as followers of Christ to turn again and again to God’s action about us. We must remember well that we are not alone and just buffeted about by whatever comes along. Rather we are held up high by the Holy Spirit; high enough that we should sing in poetic verse.

When we do feel buffeted, in Him we have rest most sweet. When the heat of negativity, hatred, prejudice, and war attempt to discourage us in our mission for Christ we have coolness and solace.

The Holy Spirit shines within us and that makes us very attractive as we invite people to meet Jesus with us. Not only that, but we know the Holy Spirit is at work as we work for the kingdom. He moves hearts for us. We can trust in that. As we do the work of the gospel we are filled, healed, and renewed. Our work is not only outwardly productive, but inwardly as well exactly because we have the Holy Spirit in and about us.

Because of the Holy Spirit we all dwell within the Body of Christ which is the Holy Church. We are members and have life in the Church. We have fellowship and common cause in the work of the gospel for we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Our oneness is a testament to the Holy Spirit’s presence and work. Therefore, we should never fail to gather as one in prayer, fellowship, and worship – for that is God’s vision of our being and our kingdom work.

Think of what we have as the one faithful, who adore and confess the Holy Spirit. We have His sevenfold gift, sure reward, salvation, and joys that never end. Take a copy of the Sequence home and pray this poetry every day this week – and thank the Holy Spirit for His presence in us.

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

+++ Reminders & Notes +++

- CarePortal Meeting: We will hold a very brief CarePortal meeting after Holy Mass. Those who signed-up should attend.
- Pentecost and Greenery: Since ancient times, there is a pious tradition to decorate churches on the day of Pentecost with greenery – leaves, flowers, and so on. The old Jewish Pentecost was the day commemorating of the 50th day after the Exodus out of Egypt when Israel came to Mount Sinai where the Lord gave Moses the Ten Commandments. It was the time of spring, and the whole mountain was covers with blooming flowers and trees. There is no doubt that when the disciples gathered on the day of Pentecost, their chamber was also covered with greenery. In remembrance of this, we decorate our churches today with greenery. Symbolically, we recall on Pentecost how our souls are blossoming because we have been touched by the grace of the Holy Spirit, and we are alive in Him. Thank you to Mrs. Liz of the ANS for placing greenery throughout the church.
- Keep inviting people to meet the Lord and join in worship and fellowship.
- Youth Activities Kurs: Please get your children ages 8-17 signed up for Kurs, July 2nd through 9th. Sign up at <https://www.kurscamp.org/>. CONVO Fr. Jim has sign-up information for the upcoming National Youth Convocation: Convo 2022 "Live, Laugh, Love with God" to be held July 18th through 22nd at Valparaiso University in Valparaiso, Indiana. Youth must be at-least 12 years old to participate in Convo and must be fully vaccinated (University requirement). The parish pays the full cost for participation. We must act quickly to ensure no additional sign-up charges.
- Men’s Retreat: All men of the parish are strongly encouraged to attend the annual Men’s Retreat, June 15th to June18th. Fr. Jim can take 3 people in his car. He is leaving after Mass on Sunday, June 12th. Sign up at <https://sites.google.com/view/ymsofrmensretreat>.
