--- And He said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation." ---

"I made known to them Your name and I will make it known, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them and I in them."

Christ is risen! Alleluia!
He is risen indeed!
Alleluia!

Over the past month we have focused on the ways Jesus reveals the Father.
Jesus reveals the Father so that we might know Him and most particularly know His great love.

As we discussed several weeks ago, the Father's nature and character is love.
It is love expressed in relationship with the Son and Spirit. It is love expressed in the extension of that relationship to us, and our participation in it.

St. John captures this revelation so well (why it is called the Book of Revelation) in recording:

*The Spirit and the bride say,
"Come." Let the hearer say,
"Come." Let the one who thirsts come forward, and the one who wants it receive the gift of life-giving water.*

Today, we see Adrianna with her parents and godparents doing this very thing. She will be asked through her godparents:
What do you ask of the Church? The answer:
Baptism. In all its fullness the answer is: I want to come in, to receive, and to have a share in the great love the Father offers.

Throughout the Easter Season in the Asperges, the blessing with Holy Water at the start of each Sunday Holy Mass we are reminded of our own baptism. In Polish this Easter Rite is known by the title of the hymn that is sung:

Widziałem Wodę, in Latin: Vidi Aquam, in English: I Saw Water.

Consider that the sight of water flowing from the right side of the Temple as in the vision of Ezekiel (Ez. 47) and from Jesus' right side on the cross is not just something to be observed, looked at from a distance, but rather something we must run toward and enter so that it touches each part of us.
Let us enter that washing and filling where love is made new each day.

The gift of God's love resides in us both now in an imperfect sense and in eternity perfectly. The gift is new for Adrianna today and will abide in her as it does in all of us.
Let us together ensure we live out that love and help her to do so.

Memory Verse

*"And now why do you wait?
Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name."*
